

Biographical notes

Alexandra Ryan

Co-founder & Partner, Coriel Capital Inc.

Alexandra Ryan is a co-founder and partner of Coriel Capital Inc., an outsourced Chief Investment Officer service for family offices, endowments and foundations founded in 2006.

She began her career in 1989 at Brockhouse Cooper Inc., a Montreal-based international brokerage firm with a consulting division, working initially as a research analyst and ultimately becoming a Partner, Senior Consultant and Manager of the Consulting Division, managing every phase of manager structure and search projects for institutional clients ranging in size from $400 million to over $1 billion.

From 2003-2006, she worked as an independent investment consultant to institutional and ultra-high net worth clients, and as a consultant to investment management firms on issues relating to the investment process, the institutional marketplace, firm positioning and marketing strategy.

She has served on the Board of Directors and the Foundation Boards of two local schools and was a member of the investment committees of both schools' foundations as well those of a private foundation and a religious order.

Mrs. Ryan holds a B.A. in Honors History from the University of Western Ontario, an MBA from McGill University and the Chartered Investment Manager (CIM) designation from the Canadian Securities Institute.