

Biographical notes

Christian Chagnon
President of Socama Inc.

Christian Chagnon holds a B.Sc.A. in Computer Science from Université du Québec à Montréal and an MBA from Université Laval.

He is currently President of the investment firm Socama Inc. He was formerly Executive Chairman of the Board of Directors of Ecmarket and co-founder of I·U·GO Ventures, a company created in 2000 specialized in investments in emerging companies in the technology sector. Prior to that, he was Senior Vice-President – Strategic Planning and Technology at Groupe Vidéotron Ltée.

Since 1998, he has also served as financial advisor for Sojecci II Itée (the Chagnon family's private holding company) in the area of investments in venture capital funds in North America and Europe.

Christian Chagnon is a member of the Board of Directors of several private companies and of the Sainte-Justine UHC Foundation. An Olympic athlete, he participated in the 1976 Summer Olympics in Montreal.