

Biographical notes

Jean-Paul David, CPA, CA, CIRP
Consultant

Jean-Paul David, CPA, CA, CIRP, currently works as a consultant, assisting entrepreneurs with their growth plans.

Previously, from 1991 to 2020, Mr. David was a partner with the accounting firm Raymond Chabot Grant Thornton (RCGT). Elected Chairman of the RCGT Partnership Board from 2016 to 2020, he was strongly involved in the firm's change in governance and strategic management. As head of financial advisory services at RCGT (2010-2012 and 2016-2017), he supervised all activities, including business valuation, due diligence and transaction support, real estate consulting, and business sale and acquisition financing. Under his direction, the RCGT Financial Advisory group underwent significant growth, doubling its revenue.

Jean-Paul David has developed extensive expertise through his work with businesses in various sectors. He has also been a speaker at a large number of conferences on topics related to financing and financial reorganization.

(July 2022)