

Biographical notes

Marjorie Skolnik

Managing Director, Coriel Capital Inc.

Marjorie Skolnik is a Managing Director at Coriel Capital Inc., an outsourced chief investment officer serving Canadian ultra high net worth families and foundations.

Previously, she held various roles across institutional financial markets, notably as Director of Global Equity Derivatives at National Bank of Canada. She began her career at Scotiabank, transacting interest rate derivatives with global central banks, treasurers and hedge funds.

Marjorie is involved in various philanthropic organizations. Notably, she is, or has been:

- Member of the Board of Directors of the Jewish Community Foundation of Montreal
- Member of the Board of Directors of Les Petits Violons
- Member of the founding committee of Fondation Jean Lapointe's 28 Day Challenge

She holds a bachelor's degree of commerce, with a specialization in Finance, from the John Molson School of Business at Concordia University, as well as the CFA designation.

(March 2024)